

Stories for a Winter Day

Enjoy this list of winter-themed picture books, some of which we read or performed with a felt board during the Noyes Children's Library Foundation's "Jumpin' January Dance Party." And ask your local MCPL librarian for more suggestions - there are more good wintry books out there! Read together and have fun!

Felt Board Stories:

The Mitten, a Ukrainian story based on the version by Jan Brett.
Bear Snores On, by Karma Wilson, illustrated by Jane Chapman.

Stories read aloud:

50 Below Zero by Robert Munsch, illus. Michael Martchenko
The Snowy Day by Ezra Jack Keats
Big Snow by Jonathon Bean
I'm Cool! by Kate and Jim Mc Mullan
Snowmen at Night by Caralyn Buehner
Snowballs by Lois Ehlert
Snip, Snip . . . Snow! by Nancy Poydar

Other Winter/Snow stories to consider:

Flora and the Penguin by Molly Idle
The Snowman by Raymond Briggs
Katy and the Big Snow by Virginia Lee Burton
The Mitten by Alvin Tresselt
A Winter Day by Douglas Florian
Snow Day by Lynn Plourde, illus. Hideko Takahashi
Snow by Manya Stoic
Snow Music by Lynn Rae Perkins